

THE CANDYMAN'S LAMENT (THE CANDYMAN)

Arranged for one of the steel bands I was directing in the spring of 2008, The Candyman's Lament is a chorale that reflects how I imagined a character feeling in the movie, Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory. This character was the owner of a candy store and must have felt all sorts of feelings after making so many ridiculous claims about how children's lives can be so much better because of The Candyman's sweets. We enjoyed this quite a bit.
